

MIDCONTINENT TERMINAL

Thunder Bay
Ontario, Canada

The farthest point a ship can reach inland
Canada

Transit times

Hamilton, Canada

6 days

Montreal, Canada

8 days

Antwerp, Belgium

22 days

Rotterdam, The Netherlands

22 days

Brake, Germany

23 days

OUR ADVANTAGE

- Situated at the farthest point a ship can reach inland Canada
- Multiple crane sizes available
- Highly skilled workforce
- Heated storage
- Proximity to the Mid Continent Trade Corridor
- Cost-effective and highly efficient services
- Located close to the US border
- 9 meters (30 feet) draft depth
- Connection to national railway grids
- Connection to the Trans-Canada Highway

ABOUT THE TERMINAL

The Midcontinent Terminal is a multimodal transportation hub connecting the Great Lakes Seaway to railways and highways in the heart of North America. It is equipped to provide cost-effective services ranging from break bulk cargo transfers to warehousing in order to reduce transportation and logistics costs. The terminal also offers real estate property and industrial development solutions suitable for various business applications. The Midcontinent Terminal is situated in the Port of Thunder Bay.

TERMINAL FACTS

- Warehousing and commercial spaces: 9820 square meters (105,700 sf)
- Terminal area size: 81 hectares (200 acres)
- Scale capacity: 100 metric tons (220462 lb)
- Crane capacity: 150 metric tons (330693 lb)
- Dock length: 525 meters (1772 feet)
- Draft depth: 9 meters (30 feet)
- Railway connection: Canadian National Railway and Canadian Pacific Railway
- Highway connection: Harbour Expressway to Trans-Canada Highway
- Closest land border crossing with US: 70 km south

HANDLING, TRANS-LOADING AND STORAGE

The terminal offers a variety of cost-effective and highly efficient services - from trans-loading break bulk cargo, liquids and other goods onto rail cars or trucks, to warehousing and vessel services. We handle the following:

- Industrial equipment
- Vessel services
- Break bulk cargo
- Overwinter docking
- Warehousing and heated storage
- Mining related equipment and ore
- Liquid
- Heavy machinery
- Scrap metal
- Steel

PRICING

Our rates are established and designed to suit your individual needs. We provide a quote based on each customer's specific requirements. Our goal is to provide you with a competitive price in order for you to move your cargo fast and efficiently.

CONTACT

Midcontinent Terminal
490 Maureen Street
Thunder Bay, Ontario, P7B 6T2, Canada
+1 807 626 3622
info@midcontinentterminal.com
www.midcontinentterminal.com

MIDCONTINENT TERMINAL

